

Last Updated - 19/11/2021

COVID-19 requirements for stallholders –

Stallholders must abide by all current Covid-19 restrictions and market rules, including but not limited to –

- All stallholders must be vaccinated with at least one dose of a Covid vaccine by the 15th of October 2021 and two by the 26th of November 2021.
- Every stallholder must have a Covid Safe Plan. This must be implemented, at your stall and available for inspection by authorities on market day. For details on how to prepare a Covid Safe Plan please go to <https://coronavirus.vic.gov.au/covidsafe-plan> or <https://business.vic.gov.au/tools-and-templates/covidsafe-plan>
- Every stallholder must have their own QR code that they display prominently at their stalls point of sale. Any customer that makes a purchase from your stall or spends an extended period of time at your stall must check in and you must request that they do so. To get your QR code and for more information go to <https://www.coronavirus.vic.gov.au/register-to-use-vic-gov-qr-code-service> and follow the links.
- Regularly wash your hands.
- Keep at least 1.5 metres from other people and actively encourage others to do so.
- Stay at home if you do not feel well, if you have symptoms get tested (if positive inform the market manager immediately if you have attended the market).
- Comply with COVID-19 cleaning requirements.
- Payments via tap and go are preferred and stallholders are encouraged to use it.
- Eliminate practices that may result in mutual touching of products or each other.
- If a stallholder becomes unwell whilst at the market they must isolate themselves, cease trade, leave the market and get tested as soon as possible. If positive they must notify the market immediately.
- Stallholders are encouraged to provide hand sanitiser at their stall for customer use and have it for their personal use, wash hands frequently as well.
- Be aware of and abide by all current COVID-19 rules and regulations as issued by relevant authorities.

Those that do not abide by these COVID-19 rules will be asked to leave the market.